

ABSTRACT:

A new and distinct variety of sweet cherry, Prunus avium L., denominated 'Brown', which is a late-ripening mutation of the well-known 'Bing' variety. This mutation ripens 22 to 24 days after 'Bing' and is distinct from it, not only in maturity but also in other characteristics.